

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH CITY OF CHICAGO

Lead Poisoning Prevention & Healthy Homes Program Application for Lead Hazard Reduction Assistance

Introduction:

Assistance is available to reduce lead paint hazards in homes and apartments occupied by low-income Chicago residents. The Chicago Department of Public Health administers grants from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), and Cook County Department of Public Health to control lead paint hazards in Chicago housing. The Chicago Department of Public Health Lead Poisoning Prevention and Healthy Homes Program provide funding and technical assistance to eligible homeowners and rental property owners.

Eligibility:

Both homeowners and rental property owners are eligible to apply. Housing selected for assistance under the program must be privately owned and built prior to 1978.
